533

Q300 WORKSTATION

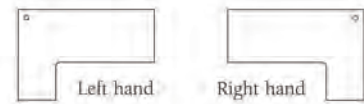

The radius of Q300 is the most popular style of workstation. Great in all applications. Available with or without a key board drop.

534

Q100 WORKSTATION

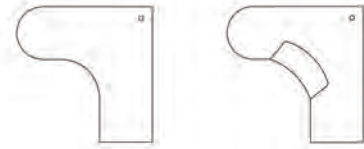

Q100 stands for a small radius. This creates a desk and return concept.

535

OVAL END WORKSTATION

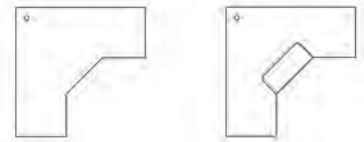

The introduction of an oval end on the workstation creates a more inviting office and it can also be used as a conference end. Sizes as per standard. Available with or without a key board drop.

536

ALPINE WORKSTATION

A traditional style with a straight key board area. The Alpine workstation provides plenty of depth in the working space. Available with or without a key board drop.

537

ELE WORKSTATION (SCALLOP)

A timeless shape. This workstation is stylish due to its body shaping design.
